HIGHLIGHT REEL

Andrews Institute

In early 2016 Sporturf™ completed a turf installation at the Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine in Gulf Breeze, FL. The Andrews Institute was founded by internationally renowned orthopaedic surgeon, Dr. James Andrews and provides a spectrum of services in order for patients at all levels of performance to quickly and accurately address their orthopaedic needs.

After researching the top synthetic turf systems on the market, the Andrews team chose Sporturf™ PowerHouse. The turf is used for rehabilitation exercises as well as combine training.
